Type for Saddle Classes Nu-

tional" indeed. William H. Wanamaker, Jr., its amateur secretary, recently made a trip to the West in the interest of the exhibition and returned with the promise of a small trainload of horses from Chicago and Kansas City. E. J. Lehman of Lake Villa, Ill., offered a $500 trophy for a competition yet to be arranged; Charles N. Hancher of Wheeling, W. Va., has offered a $250 trophy to be won outright by the grand champion horness horse or pony; Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., gives the Sunnybrook Challenge Cup for champion horners. The Bellevue-Stratford Cup for gig horses will be a $350 trophy. J. K. Dering of Chicago gives a $250 cup for hackney ponies and R. R. M. Carpenter of Wilmington, Del., a series of cups, all of which will make a remarkable collection of valuable special prizes.

Entries for the twenty-ninth Brooklyn Horse Show will close next Saturday. The exhibition on April 20 to 24 will be the first important show of the year in the East.

The New York Spring Horse Show at Durland's Riding Academy on April 26 to 29 will have a novel class for registered saddle horses this year. Not only saddle bred horses, but thoroughonly saddle brei norses, but thorough-bred race horses, Arabians, trotters, hackneys and Morgans may compete if they are duly registered in the stud books of their respective breeds. Mr. Durland reports almost unprecedented interest in the coming show, entries to

He bred Fusilier, the champion pony of this year's London Hackney Show, that brought $11,500 at the Bourne dispersal when three years old. This remarkable pony is by Fusee, out of Coine Marvel by Gentleman John.

Prize lists for the Paris Horse Show disclose the interesting fact that the French Government is stimulating the breeding of horses by providing that a small share of the prize money in each class for registered horses shall go to the breeder of the winner, even though the horse is no longer owned by him. Morris E. Howlett says 'this practice prevails at all horse shows held under Government supervision in France, and also at all trotting races, these types of horses being recognized as a national asset. An attempt was made some
